On February 23, 2004, this Court entered a memorandum and order granting defendants' motions for summary judgment, leaving as the sole remaining issue the obstructed view claim against the Railroad. On or about June 3, 2004, the parties filed a stipulation to enter final appealable judgment in this matter, further stipulating that, should this matter be affirmed on appeal as against the railroad, the remaining claim against the railroad will be dismissed pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(1). On July 22, 2005, the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit affirmed this Court's summary judgment order. No. 04-2780, slip op. at 13. Therefore, the remaining claim against the railroad is DISMISSED. This case should now be considered closed. SO ORDERED.
